

Sterrs Addition Misc

→ Hwy 20 →

1st burial Grace Wynn 2/23/66
Marker Ethyl Rogers d: 6/12/33
Bettie Black Pride 1872-1980 (108 yrs)

Ned Frazier

Decatur City Cemetery (Oakwood)

Nungester

Moseley Cemetery moved by Chemstrand

Steamboat Bill Hudson

Documentation by Phil Wirey Updated 2018

Kate Lackner, Nellie and Ben Strange

Belle Bloodworth

Wyker's Bunker

Carolyn Cortner Smith

T. M. Jones

Jewish

Ella Hildreth

Davis (Fennel Family)

McGehee

John Lile

McEntire

Hoff

Wyker

Dr. William Banks, Captain John Brown Stuart

James M. Brundidge, Grand Master Masons, father of America Neville (Minor Cemetery)

Skeggs

George Nichols

Sue Murphy Nelson (unmarked)

Scott Tomb

Polk / Littlejohn / Harris West

H. A. Skeggs

Judge W. W. Callahan

Broadus

O. C. Ludwig (unmarked) / Hoxter

Mayor H. S. Freeman

Once used as chapel

Cashin / Banks / Garth

Collier / Leadingham

Mary Broadus Pruitt

William A. Raney

Pride

Doctor Memorial (Gill - Shadowlawn)

Calvin and Fannie Brown

William M. Dancy

Ray / Nelson

Pickard / Derrick Monument (Richard Hawes Riot, Birmingham, Sheriff Joseph Smith)

Nellie Lawton's Father

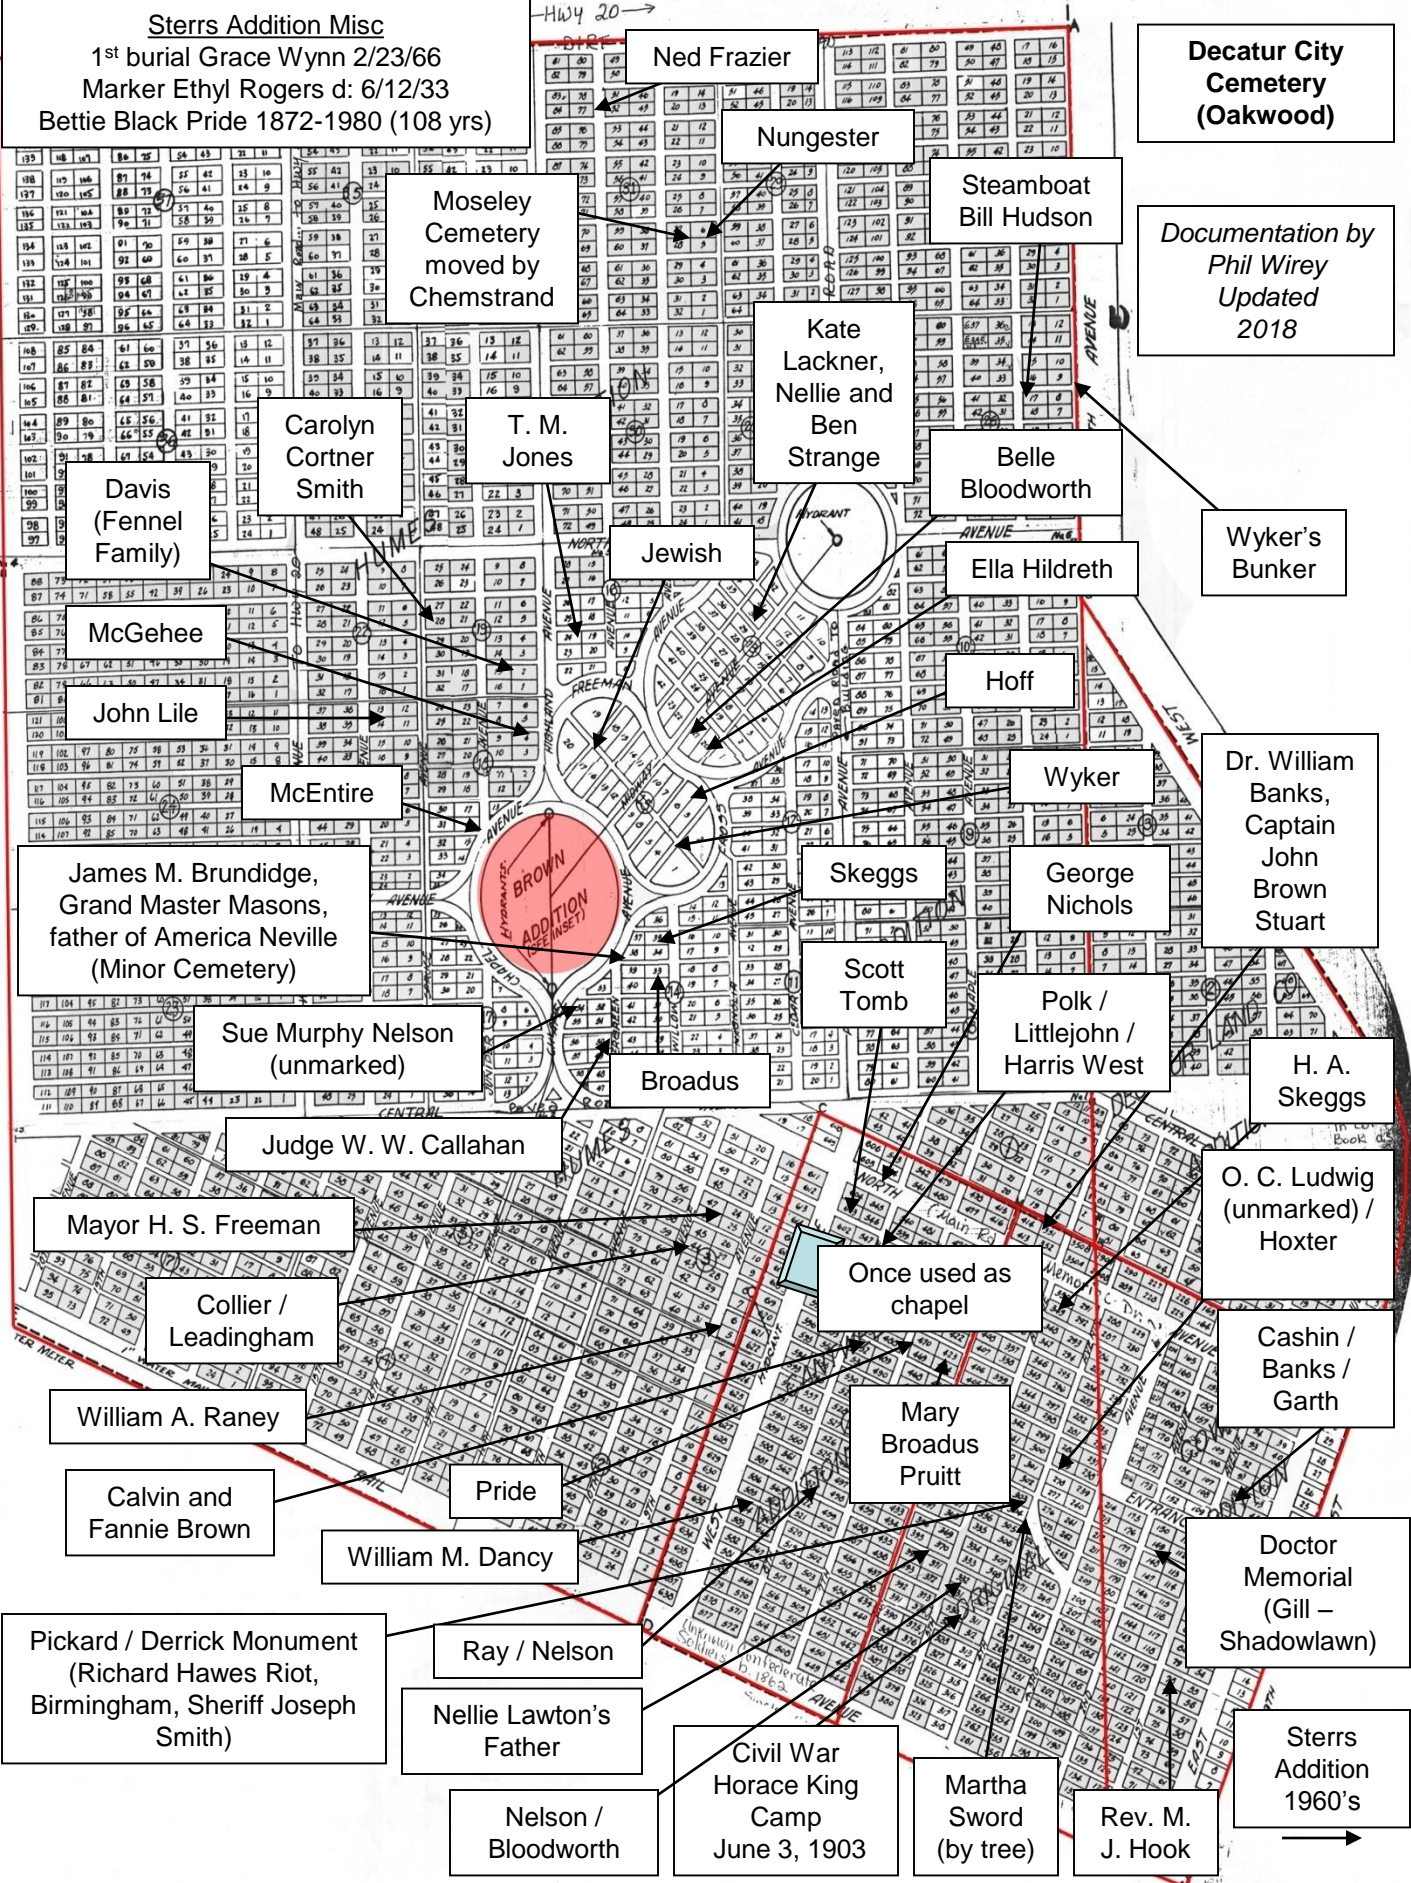

Civil War Horace King Camp June 3, 1903

Martha Sword (by tree)

Rev. M. J. Hook

Sterrs Addition 1960's

Nelson / Bloodworth

Notable Decatur Cemetery Burials

Courtesy of Phil Wirey

- Named for Dr. Willis Sterrs and Eva Sterrs – the Guardian, Cottage Grove Infirmary
- Lafayette Garth – Fought in Civil War for the 111th US Colored Infantry, born on the General Jesse Winston Garth Plantation, daughter Ada married Solomon Sykes
- Herschel Vivian Cashin – one of the first African American lawyers in Alabama
- Matthew Hewlitt Banks - second black city councilman, granddaughter Athylene
- Yellow Fever Doctor Memorial – Dr. William Gill and mass grave for yellow fever victims – 1878 and 1888
- Oswald Cross Ludwig (1858-1918) – Secretary of State of Arkansas, newspaper editor, enrolling clerk US Senate, Lizzie May his rich eccentric wife
- Little Martha Sword – September 1851 burial, moved from original cemetery?
- Oscar Pickard – police chief of Birmingham during the Richard Hawes Riot 1890's
- Civil War Burial Site – one of three civil war burial sites
- Nelson and Bloodworth families – jeweler, mayor, editors, and judges
- Nellie Lawton and Belle Bloodworth – tragic endings
- Edward Mitchell Pride and Jane Beall Pride Harris plots – Pride/Harris/Candler connections
- Calvin Brown - founder of Oakwood Cemetery and Fannie
- Christopher Columbus Harris and Edith West Harris – Dr. Anson and Marvin West
- Littlejohn and Polk Family – from the Dancy and President James K. Polk families
- Mary Broadus Pruitt – travels to China, schoolmate of Bear Bryant
- Banks and Stuart Family – first store built after Civil War
- George Nichols Gravesite - mystery man
- John Fletcher Scott - railroad contractor, builder of Scott Block Bank Street
- Judge W.W. Callahan – Scottsboro Boys Trial Judge
- Sue Murphy Nelson - lived in Rhodes Home and sued government for war destruction
- George Asa Nelson / Lillian Ray – founder of Cedar Lake
- James Brundidge – Alabama's Grand Master Masonic Lodge
- Samuel Sinclair Broadus - father was Dr. John A. Broadus, banker, historian
- Judge W. E. Skeggs – respected judge, ran stop light and shot policeman
- John D. Wyker – Ohio pharmacist, hardware store and munitions bunker
- Jewish section of cemetery – Lyons, Polytinsky, Lesser, Wohl
- Ella Hildreth and Women's Suffrage
- Kate Lackner and Nellie Strange – wine, women, and song
- Captain William Moseley family – defender of Huntsville in Creek Indian War
- Nungester and Frazier - Decatur's most famous artists and supporters of the arts